

How A British Teenager Sees My Town

What is there for visitors to do in your town, city, or part of the country? Imagine that a British teenager is staying near where you live. He / She writes an email to a friend at home. In the email

- write about what he or she thinks about the region you live in
- describe what he or she has seen up to now
- write about what he or she is planning to do next

Write an email of about 250 words .