

Paris – City of Culture

Some of the lines in the text below have a word that should not be there. If the line is correct, put a tick into the box at the end of the line. If the line has a word which should not be there, write the word into the box.

1	Paris, the capital of France, is a city where the modern and the historical
2	can be appreciated at the same time. Just one of the best examples is the
3	Louvre . The world-famous art gallery was originally made a royal palace and
4	now houses five thousand works of art, not including the Mona Lisa. Visitors
5	come from all over the whole world to see these and admire the grand
6	architecture of the building itself.
7	However, in the 80s , a more contemporary attraction was being built in the
8	gallery's courtyard; giant glass pyramids which , because of their sharp
9	contrast, look out surprisingly spectacular. The Musée d'Orsay is another
10	art gallery whose present function differs more greatly from its original use.
11	Now filled with paintings by Van Gogh and Monet, the building was at once
12	a railway station. On the other hand, the Beauborg , also known as the 13	Pompidou Centre , is a thoroughly modern building. For the home of 14	contemporary culture, it is unique in that all of its own pipes and ducts are on
15	the outside.
16	For those ones who prefer to watch the world go by rather than look at the
17	world in pictures, Les Deux Magots and Café de Flore are definitely worth such
18	a visit. These two street cafés are destinations from where many famous
19	writers and intellectuals from the past met for coffee and the stimulating
20	discussions.

Paris – City of Culture

Some of the lines in the text below have a word that should not be there. If the line is correct, put a tick into the box at the end of the line. If the line has a word which should not be there, write the word into the box.

1	Paris, the capital of France, is a city where the modern and the historical	✓
2	can be appreciated at the same time. Just one of the best examples is the	just
3	Louvre . The world-famous art gallery was originally made a royal palace and	made
4	now houses five thousand works of art, not including the Mona Lisa. Visitors	not
5	come from all over the whole world to see these and admire the grand	whole
6	architecture of the building itself.	✓
7	However, in the 80s , a more contemporary attraction was being built in the	being
8	gallery's courtyard; giant glass pyramids which , because of their sharp	✓
9	contrast, look out surprisingly spectacular. The Musée d'Orsay is another	out
10	art gallery whose present function differs more greatly from its original use.	more
11	Now filled with paintings by Van Gogh and Monet, the building was at once	at
12	a railway station. On the other hand, the Beauborg , also known as the	✓
13	Pompidou Centre , is a thoroughly modern building. For the home of	for 14	contemporary culture, it is unique in that all of its own pipes and ducts are on	own
15	the outside.	✓
16	For those ones who prefer to watch the world go by rather than look at the	ones
17	world in pictures, Les Deux Magots and Café de Flore are definitely worth such	such
18	a visit. These two street cafés are destinations from where many famous	from 19	writers and intellectuals from the past met for coffee and the stimulating	the
20	discussions.	✓