Your Community, a magazine for young people, has invited readers to send in articles about the Singing For All after-school club. The best article will be published and the winning author will receive musical instruments for a community group of their choice.

You have decided to send in an article about this after-school programme. You should:

- analyse why young children might join the after-school club
- consider how the project benefits communities
- suggest ways teenagers could encourage young people to enjoy music

Write around 250 words and give your article a title !
